Featuring Hector Berlioz's Symphony

The 2007 Marching Mustangs from Downers Grove South High School present Fantastique, featuring selections from Hector Berlioz's symphony. The music depicts a tale of unrequited love for a beautiful woman as told and experienced in person by the composer. The opening tells of her beauty through a melodic theme, and is something that recurs throughout the music as a kind of fixation. The show continues with a ballad at the end of which the composer is spurned by the beautiful woman. This is followed by a rather wicked dance of evil, and the infamous Dies Irie, the "devil's theme." Following that, the dance of evil theme re-appears in a mutated form in combination with the familiar March to the Scaffold, and is followed by more of the devil's theme. As our show concludes, love triumphs over evil as we hear the push to the end in a new triumphant fanfare. Our soloists include Melissa Britt, Flute, Tom Reusz, Clarinet, Chris Terry, Alto Sax, Katie Legel, Tenor Sax, Nate Van Asselt, Trumpet, Ben Sorce, Trombone, Matt Jones, Snare Drum, and duets of Mellophones, Julie Sharp and Gina Spiewak, Baritones, Sarah Feste and Kevin Del Bene, and Tenor Drums, Sam Bottorff and Rochelle Burkes. Color Guard soloists include Jackie Hunseder and Catie Malooly. Fantastique is conducted by Drum Majors, Jeanne Knepper, Ashley Carpenter, and Katie Danko.
